

Supply Chain Law

Compliant Supply Chain Management Requirements for the Indian Landscape

MeJuvante Overview

MeJuvante Services

Cultural Benefits

Onshore | Offshore | Mix

India at a Glance

Backup

SCM Germany

SCM India

SCM Due Diligence

Quick Insights

- Supply Chain Law 2023
- Human Rights have to be ensured in international Supply Chains
- Companies are responsible for their entire supply chain by degree of influence
- MeJuvante can be your trusted Partner in related matters

How to comply with the Law

- Check for applicable Law (German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act, The EU Corporate Sustainability Due Diligence Directive)
- Create Code of Conduct and map out Requirements to be fulfilled
- Screen Background of Suppliers and carry out a risk analysis
- Detect if Requirements are met. They could be e.g., scanning for human rights risks along the supply chain and
- Identify Changes that must be done; establish complaint mechanisms, take preventive and corrective action
- Immediate Change needs to happen if you find: Forced labor, environmental damage, child labor, unacceptable employment conditions, violation of freedom of association, discrimination and inhumane working conditions in your supply chain
- Report on Company activities
- Document Audit Material and Certificates and have those Documents on hand
- Set up proper Risk management: Environmental and Human Protection measures, as not taking care of work environment can lead to risk of human rights violations
- Analyze potential Risks and take measures accordingly. (Please note, that there are potential future risks, to keep an eye on)

With our profound knowledge we can guide you through the process of establishing a stable and compliant Business in India and help you in various matters beyond your supply chain requests

MeJuvante helps you succeed in this dynamic market by guiding you through cultural nuances, fostering strong partnerships, and tapping into India's immense business potential.